The Junior Class under the leadership of President Patty Mendell, Vice President Randy Revely, Secretary Linda Anderson, Treasurer Margaret Schell, and Advisor Mr. Robert Schray led its most enjoyable and profitable year yet. Some of the more important activities of the Class of '68 were the Junior Class Candy Sale, the sponsoring of the Junior-Senior Prom, the Cider Sale, and the Donkey Basketball Game. The never-to-be-forgotten occasion was the day the class received their rings.

The Juniors were ready to take responsibility and did so in many of the school functions such as the Student Council, the school newspaper, the yearbook, athletics, and the Pep Club. Members of the staff of the Pegasus from the Class of '68 were Judy Romlein, Marilyn Geene, Margaret Schell, Paul Barnthouse, Henry Holcomb, Toby Barton, Valerie Venza, Margaret Kowal, Russ Johnson, Carolyn Rowan, Doris Picciotti, and Jeanne Judson.

Participants on the Hitching Post were as follows: Patty Mendell, Toby Barton, Margaret Schell, Kathy Kehoe, Debby Dabczynski, Bob Whitehill, Ned Giles, Jack Feldman, Paul Barnthouse, and Henry Holcomb. Participants in Girls' Sports were Linda Anderson, Jackie Todd, Jeanne Judson, Mimi Hill, Sue Walz, Margaret Kowal, and Elaine Maple.

Juniors involved in the Colt Band were Chris Hancock, Wendy Bott, Mike Keach, Kim Wohltmann, and Robin Klemm. Color Guard members were Kathy Pelepshin, Kathy Lynch, and Margaret Kowal.

All in all, the Junior Class had a very active year; the class doubled its treasury, and looks forward to an even more successful year next year.
